GARDNERS INN

WELCOMING TRAVELLERS SINCE 1831

About us...

The Gardner's Inn Hotel is situated in the heart of Blackheath's town centre.

Surrounded by some of the world's most breathtaking scenery, the hotel is located within the famous Blue Mountains region.

The Gardner's Inn Hotel is the oldest licensed hotel in the Blue Mountains, and was established in 1831. The grand old building boasts many enticing features and has always been a popular watering hole and rest stop for those travelling across the historic mountains.

The management team at the Gardner's Inn has worked meticulously to bring the hotel into the 21st century whilst maintaining that old world country charm.
